Civil enforcement process Online Civil Money Claim process County Court Judgement process

Anna is owed money by Andrew who is not responding

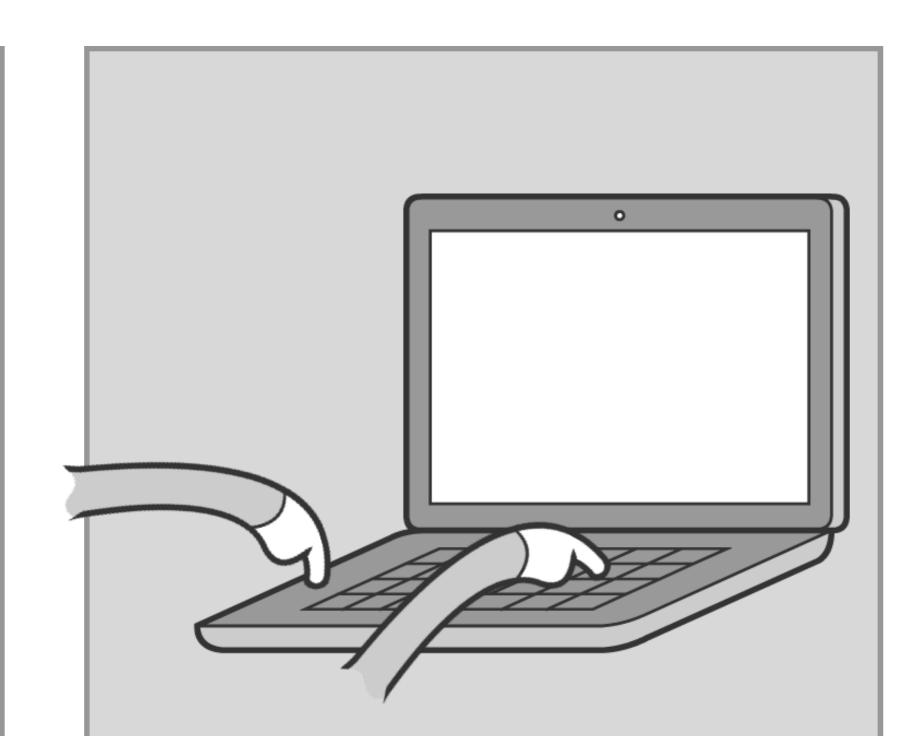

Anna learns about Online Civil Money Claims

Anna decides to make claim using Online Civil Money

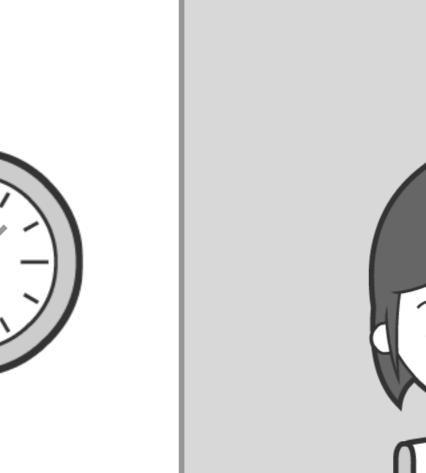

Anna receives notification from OCMC alerting her of next steps

Anna requests a County Court Judgement

Anna learns about County Court Judgement being issued

Anna has still not received payment and learns about civil enforcement

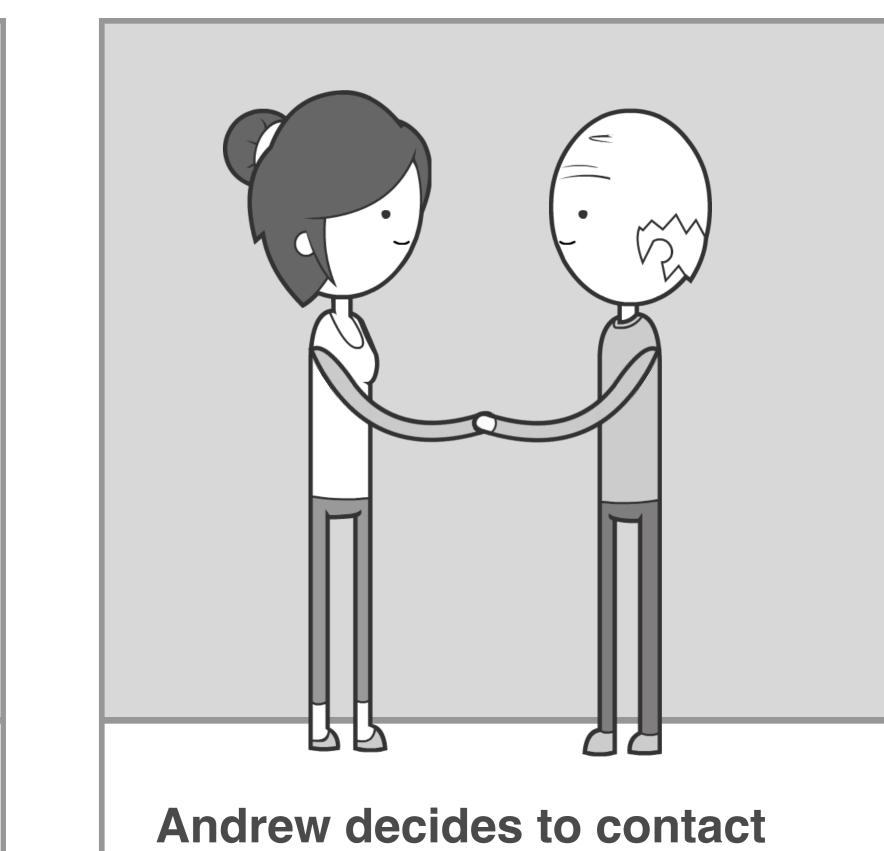

Anna decides that civil enforcement is right for her and chooses to apply for a writ of control

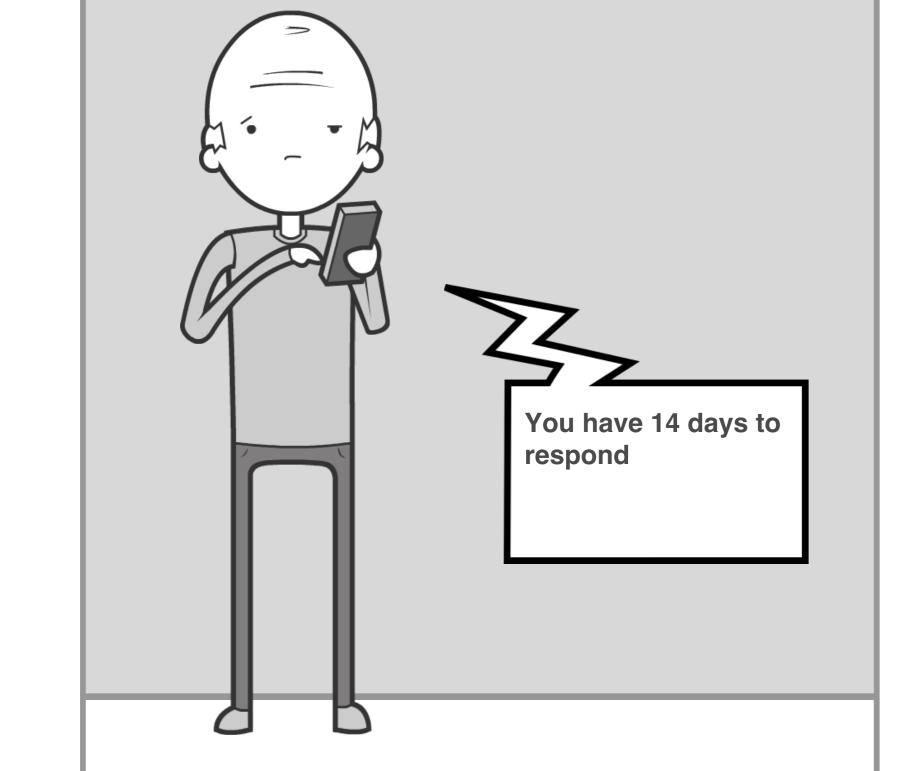

Anna learns about writ of control being issued

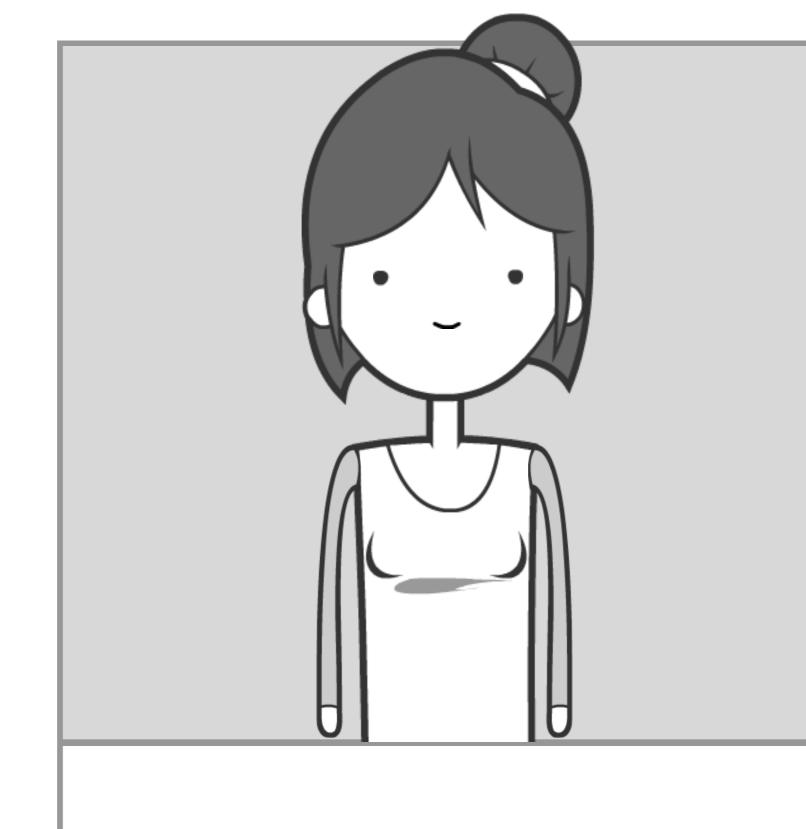

Anna learns that she can now serve the writ of control to the nominated HCEO

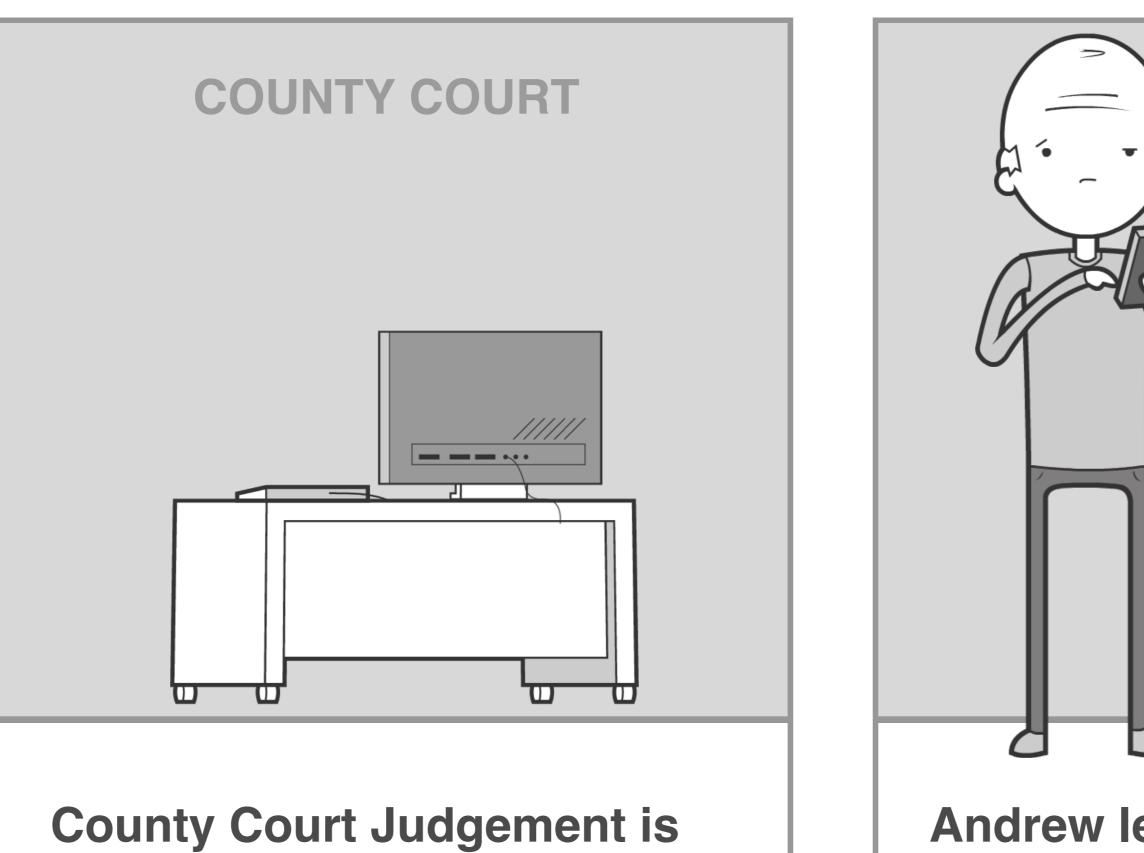

Anna and pay what is owed

Andrew learns about Online Civil Money Claims lodged by

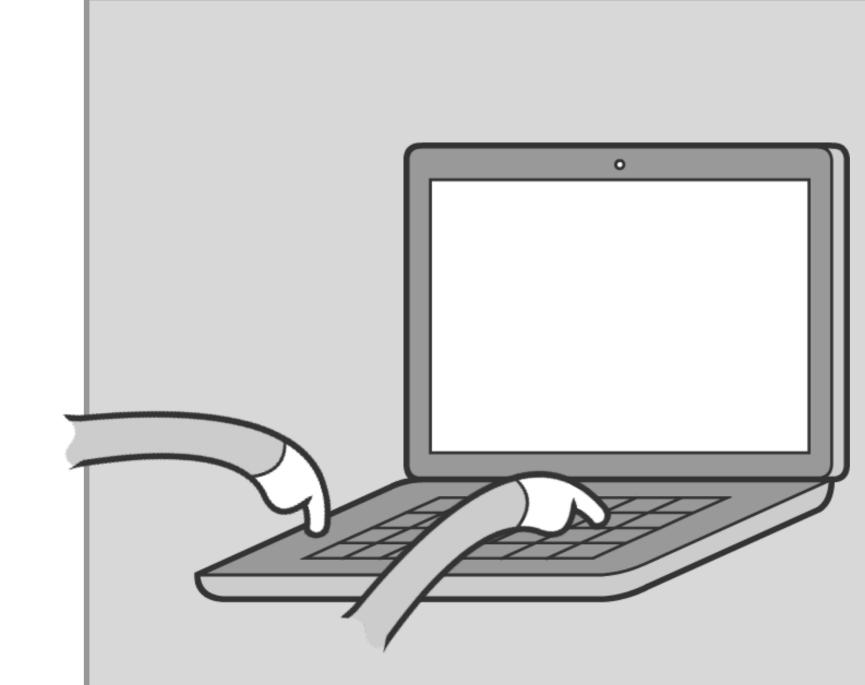

Anna is clear about what she can do next

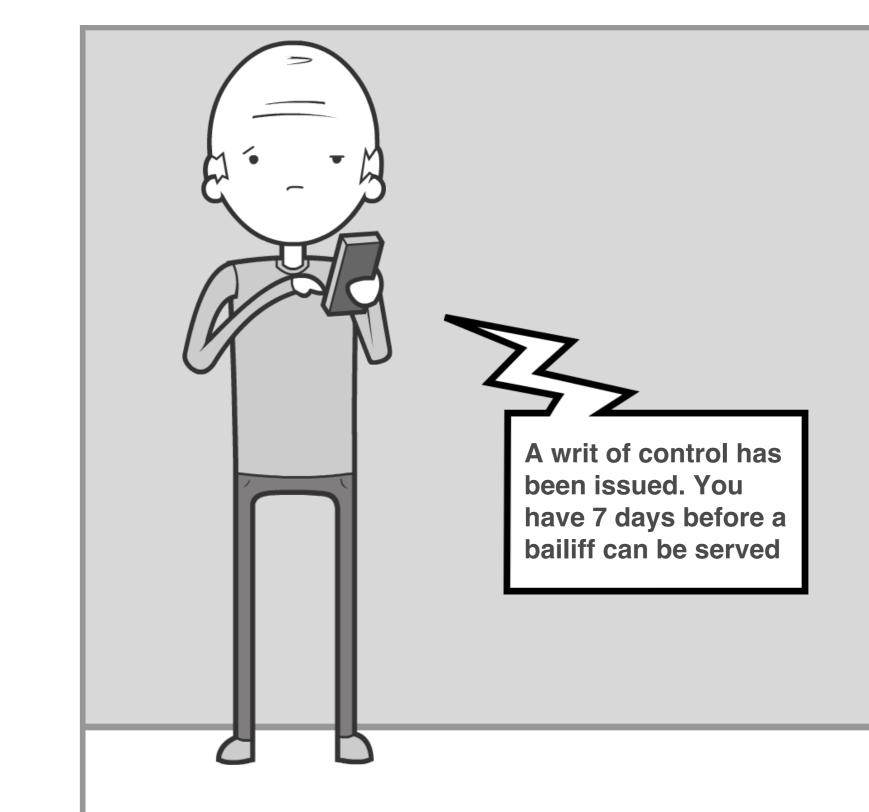

Andrew learns about County Court Judgement being issued

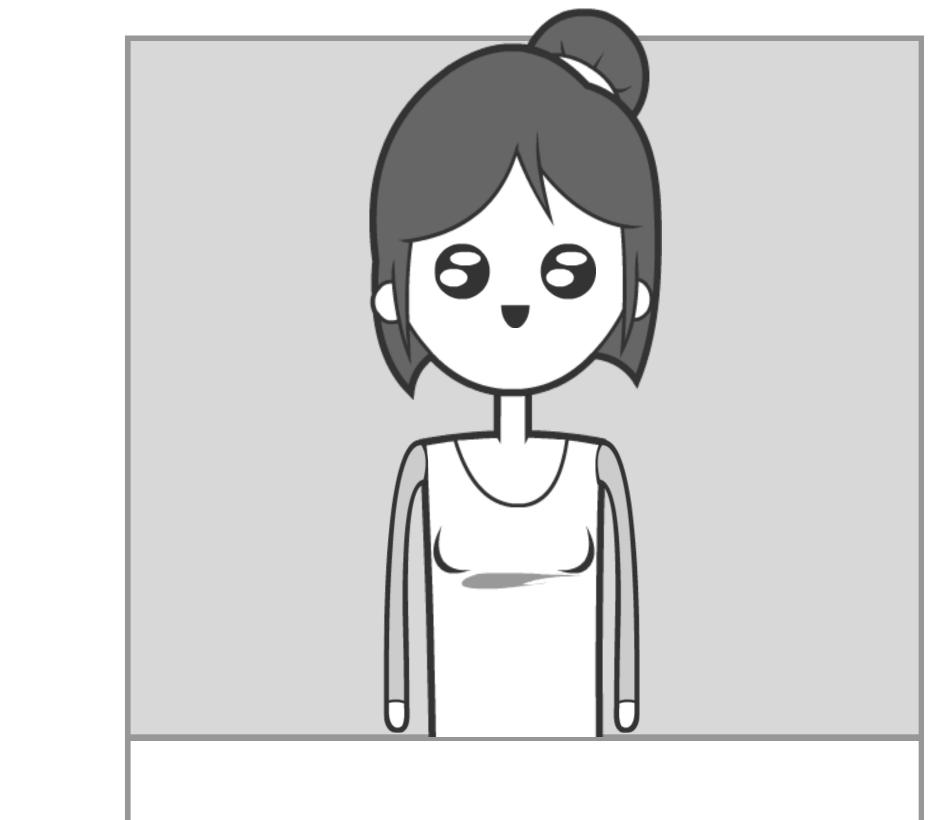

A CCJ has been

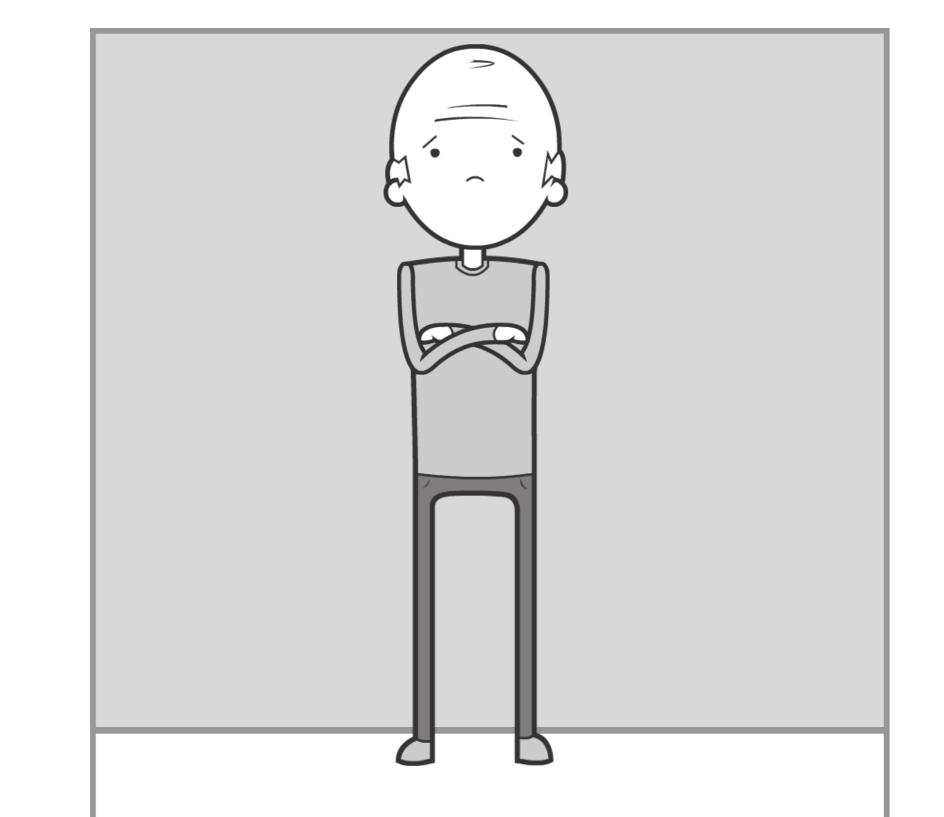

Anna supplies the required details to apply for a writ of

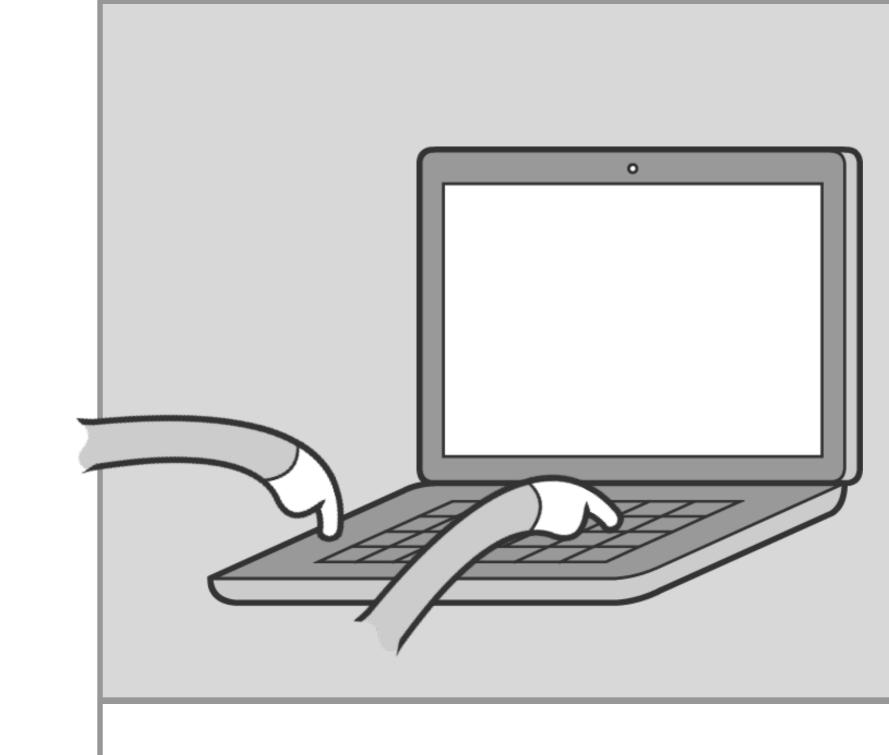

Andrew learns about writ of control being issued

Anna is relieved that the process is over and she has been paid

Andrew chooses to ignore notifications and 14 days

Anna pays the £66 court fee and the application is submitted

